Thank you Kate- great remarks, as always. I'll stand by to hear when and where I'm signing anything... I don't see anything on the schedule reflecting any events tomorrow or Tuesday.

Governor,

Here are your remarks for tomorrow's bill signings and proclamation of September as Energy Efficiency Month. Certain details are still being determined by the Press and Leg Office, and so the event information portion will be provided to you tomorrow morning. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you!

Subject: TALKING POINTS FOR CNBC

Governor,

Attached are talking points for your review. No changes since you last reviewed them in early August. Just wanted to make sure that you had these in hand for a quick reminder if you needed them for CNBC tomorrow.

Thanks,
Meg
